

Deborah Springer, RN, CCM is a professional registered nurse in North Carolina and Massachusetts and specializes in medical case supervision. She received her nursing degree from Quinsigamond Community College and is a Certified Case Manager. She has 5 years of prior case management experience, and 6 years of nursing experience. She has been employed with Southern Rehab since 2002 and now serves as a Medical Case Supervisor.