

Martha Owen, M.Ed., CRC is a Certified Rehabilitation Counselor and specializes in vocational case management with Southern Rehab. She received her Master of Education in Rehabilitation Services from Auburn University. She has 36 years prior experience, including 27 years of vocational work. Her areas of expertise include vocational counseling/assessment, labor market surveys, knowledge of community resources for situational assessment, and adjustment services for persons with developmental or mental health issues. She has been employed by Southern Rehab since 2003 and serves the Western North Carolina region.