

Melanie Rogers, MS, CRC, LPC is a Certified Rehabilitation Counselor and specializes in vocational case management with Southern Rehab. She received her Master of Science for Substance Abuse Counseling and Rehabilitation Counseling from East Carolina University and is a Licensed Professional Counselor. She has experience in working with substance abuse, children in domestic violence shelters, and dually-diagnosed women. She has been employed with Southern Rehab since 2003 and currently works in Eastern North Carolina.